

WHEREAS, Al and Peggy Mistak are both leaders in music, arts and humanitaria endeavors, and valued members of their community, Park Ridge, Illinois; and,

WHEREAS, Al has been director of the Evanston Township High School Orchestra for many years, and under his direction this orchestra has grown to be one of the best of its kind in the nation; and,

WHEREAS, Al is a composer of note, having published modern music which has been performed by symphonies and musical ensembles throughout the world, and his work brings new expectations to the future of modern music; and,

WHEREAS, Peggy taught vocal music for many years in the Park Ridge schools, leaving to devote her time to writing books on the subject of teaching music to elementary school children; and,

WHEREAS, Peggy has published two books which have been extremely well received because of the novel approach involved; and,

WHEREAS, Al and Peggy are good friends of Richard Halslet, Jr., a valued staff member of the Public Utilities Commission of the State of South Dakota, who shares their appreciation of music and contributions to the world of art, and the world of people; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that during this Bicentennial Year we honor Al and Peggy, these outstanding individuals, who have contributed so greatly to the enhancement of the arts throughout our nation:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the first day of the Bicentennial Year, January 1, 1976, as in South Dakota, and do urge their many friends to join with them in celebration on this special day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre the Capital City, this 4th day of December, in the Year of Our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy-Five

RICHARD F. KNEIP, GOVERNOR

LORNA B. HERSETH, SECRETARY OF STATE
